

Kindergarten Summer Read Aloud and Project

Read at least 1 of the books from the list below.

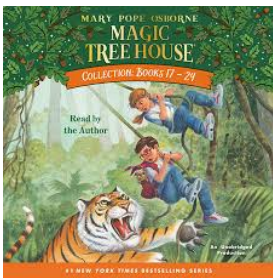

The books listed below are READ-ALOUDS. This means that parents will read the book to their child. After reading the book with your child, then as a family write a synopsis of your favorite part of the book and illustrate. After writing your synopsis, you and your child will need to create a model from the story.

Examples: make a boxcar - BoxCar Children story
